MOVEMENTS AND CONTACTS OF FLEGEL DURING
PERIOD 4 JUN 46 TO TIME OF ARREST 29 NOV 46

(NB: For Prisoner's movements and contacts prior to 4 Jun 46, see DIC FR 111 on SPRINGER.)

4 Jun 46

Prisoner and SPRINGER arrived in HAMBURG from the US Zone and went to the flat of HERDE in Rotenbaum Chaussee 113. Prisoner's and SPRINGER's main concern was to obtain new D2 forms. HERDE told Prisoner that KÖHNKE would be unable to supply them, and Prisoner and SPRINGER therefore decided to go to DE CHELARD at ITZEHOE to see whether he could help them. Prisoner and SPRINGER spent the night at HERDE's flat.

5 Jun 46

Prisoner and SPRINGER visited Hilde SCHÄFER, Rotenbaum Chaussee 91, to obtain the latest news of STENDER and DE CHELARD. Prisoner told SCHÄFER that he intended to visit DE CHELARD, and she asked him to call on her again on his return and give her the latest news. She told Prisoner that, during the summer, she worked on a farm, and that should Prisoner remain in the British Zone, he should visit her at Frau TEGELER's at ALTENMEDINGEN. Prisoner and SPRINGER then called on KÖHNKE to see whether they could get D2 forms from him. In the afternoon, Prisoner and SPRINGER went to DE CHELARD at MÜNSTERDORF. DE CHELARD told them that he had met a man who was the second-in-command of a well-organised movement. DE CHELARD further stated that a Russian attack on the Western Zones was expected not later than Jan 47, that Russian troops were said to be massing, and that the KPD was organising sabotage groups in the British and US Zones to come to the assistance of the advancing Russian troops. DE CHELARD said that all this infm had been given him by his new acquaintance and that the org to which this man belonged was known as the "Anti-Orden" ("Anti-Bewegung"). DE CHELARD further told Prisoner that it was his intention to put himself and his followers at the disposal of this org. According to Prisoner, DE CHELARD said that in order to combat the proposed KPD sabotage groups, it would be necessary for "good Germans" in every town and village in the British, US and French Zones to form themselves into small groups. Prisoner decided to give up his original intention of accompanying SPRINGER to the French Zone, and to remain in the British Zone to combat the Russians. When Prisoner and SPRINGER asked DE CHELARD whether he could supply them with D2 forms, he gave SPRINGER one blank form. Both Prisoner and SPRINGER spent the night at DE CHELARD's house.

6 Jun 46

Prisoner and SPRINGER decided that Prisoner should travel to NIEBÜLL to enquire from Obstlt Gerd HEIN whether his fiancée, Petri MATTHIJSSEN, had any news of Frau SPRINGER, and to inform HEIN of what he had heard from DE CHELARD. Meanwhile SPRINGER was to go to a farmer KÄLCHER at NORDHASTEDT, and contact through him Obaf Hans MORITZEN.

7 Jun 46

Prisoner left MÜNSTERDORF and went to NIEBÜLL. He saw HEIN and MATTHIJSSEN, who had, however, no news of Frau SPRINGER. When HEIN heard why SPRINGER had to leave the US Zone, he recommended that SPRINGER should leave the British Zone, and particularly SCHLESWIG-HOLSTEIN, as quickly as possible. Prisoner informed HEIN of DE CHELARD's latest intentions and ideas, and suggested that HEIN and DE CHELARD should meet. HEIN told Prisoner that he intended visiting Max HILLERS, a former comrade of his at ITZEHOE, on the Saturday after Whitsun, and arranged with Prisoner to meet him and DE CHELARD there. (NB: HEIN was prevented by his arrest from keeping this appointment.) Prisoner left NIEBÜLL for NORDHASTEDT in the late afternoon, and spent the night in the train in HUSUM.

8 Jun 46

Prisoner arrived at NORDHASTEDT and called on KÄLCHER to collect SPRINGER. SPRINGER had, however, left to see a dentist in ALBERSDORF. Prisoner met SPRINGER on the road to ALBERSDORF. They then set off for ITZEHOE and spent the night en route at the station restaurant at VIALE.

9 Jun 46

Prisoner and SPRINGER arrived at ITZEHOE late in the afternoon and met DE CHELARD. Prisoner asked DE CHELARD whether Dr GRUNE, of whom he had heard previously through SPRINGER, could remove his SS blood-group tattoo. DE CHELARD immediately made the necessary arrangements, and Dr GRUNE operated on Prisoner the same evening.

10 Jun 46

Both Prisoner and SPRINGER stayed at DE CHELARD's home. They decided that SPRINGER should make arrangements for his trip to the French Zone (see DIC FR 111 on SPRINGER) and that Prisoner should borrow some money from their mutual friend BULL. They agreed that they should meet either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning at HERDE's flat in HAMBURG.

11 Jun 46

Prisoner took an early train to ELM SHORN and called on BULL, but as he was received rather coldly, he did not ask him for a loan. Prisoner took the midday train from ELM SHORN to HAMBURG, and called on KÖHNKE, who gave him two D2 forms which bore a rubber stamp: "Army Pil-Tps". Prisoner then met SPRINGER in the Roterbaum Chaussee, and returned with him to KÖHNKE's. They told KÖHNKE of DE CHELARD's new plans, which did not greatly interest him. KÖHNKE agreed nevertheless that Prisoner should introduce DE CHELARD to him if an opportunity should present itself. Prisoner and SPRINGER spent the evening with HERDE, from whom SPRINGER obtained a loan of RM 200.

12 Jun 46

Prisoner accompanied SPRINGER to ALTONA station, where SPRINGER purchased a ticket to FRANKFURT/MAIN.

13 Jun 46

Prisoner and HERDE took the train from ALTONA to ITZEHOE. SPRINGER accompanied Prisoner to the train. (NB: This was the last time that Prisoner saw SPRINGER.) HERDE travelled with Prisoner as far as VALE. Prisoner told HERDE that he had arranged to meet Obstlt HEIN on 15 Jun 46 at HILLERS' flat in ITZEHOE, and that DE CHELARD would also be present in order to acquaint HEIN of his plans and the aims of the "Anti-Orden". HERDE showed a certain amount of interest in Prisoner's remarks and asked whether he could also come. Prisoner thereupon gave HERDE HILLERS' address at ITZEHOE. Prisoner arrived in ITZEHOE late in the afternoon and went to HILLERS, introducing himself as "RIGSCH". He told HILLERS that he was a friend of HEIN, and HILLERS invited him to stay the night. He told Prisoner that he had formerly held a position in the NSKK, and that the KPD had asked him to join their party. Prisoner told him about DE CHELARD and his ideas, and asked him whether a meeting between Prisoner, HEIN, DE CHELARD and HERDE could take place in his flat. HILLERS agreed, but pointed out that he had had news from HEIN's fiancée that HEIN would not be able to attend. (NB. HEIN was arrested on 8 Jun 46.)

14 Jun 46

DE CHELARD and HERDE arrived at HILLERS' flat. DE CHELARD said that if Prisoner decided to remain in the British Zone and wanted employment, Fritz BERNOTAT, who held a position at the Labour Exchange at RENDSBURG, could help him. DE CHELARD then spoke of his political intentions in the presence of Prisoner, HERDE and HILLERS, and assured his listeners that the aims of the "Anti-Orden" were anti-Communist, and in no way directed against the Western Powers.

15 Jun 46

Prisoner left ITZEHOE and called on BERNOTAT at HADEMARSCHEN. Prisoner told him that he was sent by DE CHELARD. In the course of conversation, Prisoner learned that BERNOTAT had previously been a HJ leader and had known CHELARD in WEST PRUSSIA. Prisoner states that BERNOTAT knew very little of DE CHELARD's political intentions, and that he had the impression that BERNOTAT did not wish to become involved with DE CHELARD.

BERNOTAT then considered Prisoner's request for employment, and asked Prisoner to call on him at his office on 19 Jun 46. Prisoner walked to ALBERSDORF and stayed the night with Frau WOLTER. Frau WOLTER introduced him to EDEL, LUMITSCH and SCHOLZ, who happened to be at her house at the time. Prisoner told Frau WOLTER and her guests the gist of his conversation with DE CHELARD. He also told them that it might well happen that people around DE CHELARD would have to go into hiding, and asked them whether they would be prepared in such an event to assist them. EDEL told Prisoner that he would be willing to shelter such people, and that he could also procure identity papers. Prisoner states that all four declared their willingness to participate in any anti-Communist org, provided that the aims of such an org did not run counter to the policy of the Western Powers. LUMITSCH promised Prisoner to find him a job on the VIERTHOF estate nr ALBERSDORF, where he was employed, and they agreed to meet again on 16 Jun 46.

16 Jun 46

Prisoner saw LUMITSCH at the VIERTHOF estate. They discussed what measures could be taken against KPD sabotage groups in case of an emergency.

17 Jun 46

Prisoner left ALBERSDORF for ITZEHOE. He saw DE CHELARD and informed him of his meeting with EDEL, LUMITSCH and SCHOLZ. DE CHELARD informed Prisoner that "his people" were already firmly established in ITZEHOE. Prisoner spent the night at DE CHELARD's flat.

18 Jun 46

Prisoner and DE CHELARD travelled to HAMBURG, and called on KÖHNKE. Prisoner introduced DE CHELARD, who expounded his political views to KÖHNKE. Prisoner states that KÖHNKE did not commit himself, but declared that in the event of a conflict between the Western Powers and RUSSIA he would fight on the side of the Western Powers. Prisoner then took DE CHELARD to HERDE's flat, where they met only ABE, a friend of HERDE's. DE CHELARD left after a short time. (NB: This was the last time DE CHELARD and Prisoner were together.)

19 Jun 46

Prisoner travelled to RENDSBURG and saw BERNOTAT at his office regarding employment. BERNOTAT offered him the choice of one or two jobs as an insurance agent with firms in RENDSBURG and HAMBURG. Prisoner then left RENDSBURG and returned to ITZEHOE.

20 Jun 46

Prisoner called on Frau TEGELER at ALTENMEDINGEN, who told him that Hilde SCHÄFER was staying at the village inn. Prisoner thereupon met SCHÄFER. He told her of his experiences since he had last seen her, and in particular of DE CHELARD's ideas and plans. She mentioned to Prisoner that a friend of Frau TEGELER, Eugen HAUER, a former member of the Waffen SS, would be interested in what Prisoner had told her and suggested that he should see HAUER at HENRICH's farm at HAASSEL. Prisoner went to HAASSEL and saw HAUER. They returned in the evening to Frau TEGELER's, where they met SCHÄFER and her girl friend, Atti LANGE. In the presence of these people, Prisoner spoke of DE CHELARD and the immediate danger of a Russian attack.

24 Jun 46

Prisoner travelled to BREMEN and called at the office of a former acquaintance, JACOBS, the proprietor of a coffee-roasting firm, to see whether he could obtain employment. He discovered that JACOBS was at a branch office at STEYERBERG, and visited him there. JACOBS could not, however, offer him employment. He gave Prisoner an introduction to an insurance broker, RENKEN, at DELMENHORST.

25 Jun - 1 Jul 46

Prisoner stayed with JACOBS at KLÜVENHAGEN. Prisoner told JACOBS of all he had heard from DE CHELARD, but JACOBS advised him not to become involved in political movements of any kind.

1 Jul 46

Prisoner and JACOBS travelled to BREMEN, whence Prisoner continued his journey alone to DELMENHORST, where he called on RENKEN. In the course of conversation, RENKEN informed Prisoner that Ostuf BARTLING was still at large and was living nr HERFORD. RENKEN did not know his exact address, but told Prisoner that POGGENGERD, a waiter at the rly buffet at PORTA WESTFALICA knew where BARTLING could be found. Prisoner left DELMENHORST the same day and travelled to PORTA, where he learned that POGGENGERD had moved to GÜTERSLOH and was employed by FABIG, a confectioner.

2 Jul 46

Prisoner travelled to GÜTERSLOH and called on POGGENGERD, who told Prisoner that BARTLING had left GÜTERSLOH for the US Zone to visit former comrades, and that he was expected back at GÜTERSLOH about mid Jul 46. Prisoner left a message for BARTLING with POGGENGERD, to the effect that he wished to see him urgently, and that BARTLING should get in touch with him through RENKEN.

3 Jul 46

Prisoner went to STEYERBERG and saw JACOBS. He told JACOBS that he intended going to DELMENHORST to see RENKEN, and thence to ITZEHOE.

4 Jul 46

Prisoner arrived at DELMENHORST and called on RENKEN. He told RENKEN that he had been unable to contact BARTLING, but that he had left a message with POGGENGERD for him. Prisoner then told RENKEN that he would let him know his whereabouts as soon as he had a permanent address.

5 Jul 46

Prisoner arrived at DE CHELARD's home in MÜNSTERDORF, but was told by DE CHELARD's sister-in-law that DE CHELARD and his wife had been arrested. Prisoner then called on HILLERS at ITZEHOE and informed him of DE CHELARD's arrest.

HILLERS told Prisoner that DE CHELARD had called on him a few days previously and had shown him a letter from HEIN from FLENSBURG prison. In this it stated that Frau SPRINGER was in the same gaol and that HEIN had been repeatedly questioned about SPRINGER, DE CHELARD and FLEGEL. DE CHELARD had also told HILLERS that he was surprised to have received a letter from HEIN, whom he did not know at all. Prisoner and HILLERS decided that in future they would have nothing to do with any illegal movement. In the afternoon Prisoner returned to MÜNSTERDORF and called on Dr GRUNE and informed him of DE CHELARD's arrest.

6 Jul 46

Prisoner left ITZEHOE for ALBERSDORF where he visited Frau WOLTER. He asked her to call on BERNOTAT at HADEMARSCHEN and inform him of DE CHELARD's arrest. In the afternoon he met EDEL and LUMITSCH and told them of DE CHELARD's arrest.

7 Jul 46

Prisoner obtained a typewriter through Frau WOLTER, and filled in the D2 form which he had obtained from KÖHNKE. Prisoner made out this certificate in the name of "Hans Hermann MIGSCH".

8 Jul 46

Prisoner left ALBERSDORF for NORDHASTEDT, where he stayed for two days with farmer CLAUSSEN.

10 - 11 Jul 46

Prisoner went to SÜDERHOLM and stayed with farmer THIESSEN.

12 Jul 46

Prisoner left SÜDERHOLM for DELMENHORST and called on RENKEN. He told him that he would be working for farmer HENRICHS at HAASSEL, and that should BÄRTLING wish to get in touch with him, he should call on Prisoner at this address. (NB: Prisoner states that BÄRTLING never called.) Prisoner then left DELMENHORST for KLÜVENHAGEN.

13 Jul 46

Prisoner arrived at KLÜVENHAGEN and called on JACOBS. He told JACOBS that he would be working for farmer HENRICHS. He then left KLÜVENHAGEN for ALTENMEDINGEN.

14 Jul 46

Prisoner called on Frau TEGELER at ALTENMEDINGEN and then went to farmer HENRICHS, who agreed to employ him for a few weeks.

26 Jul 46

Prisoner left HENRICHS and called on SCHÄFER, who was working in ALTENMEDINGEN. Prisoner asked SCHÄFER to inform KÖHNKE of DE CHELARD's arrest.

30 Jul - 1 Aug 46

Prisoner left ALTENMEDINGEN for HAMBURG. He went to SCHÄFER, with whom he stayed until 1 Aug 46. He informed her that he intended visiting friends in HEILIGENHAFEN (in fact, he intended to visit his family at BURG on the island of FEEHARN). Prisoner asked SCHLIFER whether she knew of anyone who was in possession of a typewriter of the kind used by the SS. SCHLIFER told him that a friend of hers in MILENTE, Walter EWERT, might be able to provide one. She also told Prisoner that EWERT's address could be obtained in MILENTE at the "Kunstmühle", a shop owned by the brother of Atti LANGE.

APPENDIX A

1 Aug 46

Prisoner left HAMBURG for MILENTE and on arrival called at the "Kunstmühle" where he found that EWERT had a workshop in the same building. Prisoner and EWERT were then joined by BANGERT, formerly of the W/SS. BANGERT told Prisoner that until recently he had been with the police at LÜBECK, but had to give up his job when it became known that he was a former member of the SS. Prisoner then asked BANGERT and EWERT whether they knew where he could get an SS typewriter. BANGERT replied that there were still a number of former W/SS members employed with the police in LÜBECK, who would be able to help in this connection. EWERT mentioned that one of them was Revieroberwachmeister WEBER, a friend of his, who was with the Schupo. EWERT suggested that if Prisoner should be in LÜBECK, he should see WEBER. Prisoner told EWERT that he hoped to find employment with a coffee merchant (JACOBS), or failing that, with Circus ALTHOFF. (NB: RENKEN had given Prisoner details of this circus. He also mentioned that a former regimental comrade of his (whose name Prisoner believes is BARTSCH) was employed at the circus and that he was in a position to find work for newcomers).

2 Aug 46

EWERT gave Prisoner a visiting card as introduction to WEBER at LÜBECK. Prisoner and BANGERT then went to the rly stn and boarded the train to LÜBECK. BANGERT left the train at EUTIN. This was the last time that Prisoner saw him. On arrival in LÜBECK, Prisoner called at the Schupo and enquired for WEBER. Prisoner met WEBER that afternoon, produced EWERT's visiting card, and conveyed greetings from EWERT and BANGERT. They agreed to meet later at WEBER's flat. Before leaving, Prisoner noticed an SS typewriter in WEBER's office. He asked WEBER whether he had any objection to helping a former SS comrade by allowing this typewriter to be used for copying an SS document, the nature of which Prisoner said he would explain to WEBER later. Without hesitation WEBER agreed to help. Prisoner met WEBER at his flat at about 1700 hrs. Later in the evening Jochen BRÖKER and his wife called on WEBER and Prisoner was introduced to them under the alias of WIGSCH, by which name he was known to WEBER. Still later they were joined by HAHN and Dierk OMLEN. Prisoner states that both HAHN and OMLEN asked whether he knew of any existing "organisation".

/viii

- Prisoner replied that he had not heard of any kind of "organisation", and that as far as he was concerned he would not care to have anything to do with one. Before leaving WEBER's flat, Prisoner told him that he would call again in connection with the SS document.
- 3 - 4 Aug 46 Prisoner travelled to FEHLARN and spent the weekend with his family at BURG.
- 5 Aug 46 Prisoner left BURG in order to locate circus ALTHOFF with a view to finding employment there. He had been told that the circus was at LEER in OSTFRIESLAND.
- 6 Aug 46 Prisoner arrived at LEER, but found that circus ALTHOFF had left and was believed to be at HERFORD. Prisoner then travelled to HERFORD, but was unable to trace the circus.
- 7 Aug 46 Prisoner travelled to ÜLZEN and reported to the Labour Exchange for work as a male nurse. He was told to report to the ST-VIETH hospital in ÜLZEN the following morning.
- 8 - 10 Aug 46 Prisoner reported to ST-VIETH hospital, but found that the vacancy had already been filled. He then went to ALTENREDINGEN, where he met SCHÄFER by chance at the local inn. Prisoner spent one night at the local inn and the following two nights at Frau TEGELER's home. SCHÄFER returned to HAMBURG on 10 Aug 46.
- 11 Aug 46 Prisoner travelled to HAMBURG and spent the day and night at SCHÄFER's flat.
- 12 - 16 Aug 46 Prisoner stayed with Frau WOLTER in ALBERSDORF.
- 17 Aug 46 Prisoner left ALBERSDORF and went to KLÜVENHAGEN. He called on JACOBS regarding employment, and to obtain particulars for the false SS discharge document. Prisoner then left KLÜVENHAGEN for BREMEN.
- 18 Aug 46 Prisoner spent the day in BREMEN. In the afternoon he took a train to ÜLZEN.
- 19 - 22 Aug 46 Prisoner called at ÜLZEN Labour Exchange and had his name transferred to the Labour Exchange at STEYERBERG. In the afternoon Prisoner travelled to HAMBURG and spent four days with SCHÄFER.
- 23 Aug 46 Prisoner arrived in LÜBECK. He called on WEBER regarding the SS document for JACOBS. Prisoner told WEBER that he would collect the document at a later date. WEBER asked Prisoner whether he could obtain a D2 form for Dietrich OMLEN. Prisoner told him that he could not.

24 - 28 Aug 46

Prisoner left LÜBECK for BURG and stayed with his family.

29 Aug 46

Prisoner left BURG for LUBECK and called on WEBER. WEBER gave Prisoner the false SS document for JACOBS. WEBER discussed the arrest of ZELLER with Prisoner.

30 Aug 46

Prisoner returned to HAMBURG and spent the day and night with SCHÄFER.

31 Aug 46

ZELLER called at SCHÄFER's flat to see Prisoner. He had been given his address by WEBER. ZELLER told SCHÄFER and Prisoner that he had been suddenly released from prison and that he considered it wise to disappear from LÜBECK. Prisoner states that he gave ZELLER the address of Frau WOLTER at ALBERSDORF and advised him to find out from her whether it was still possible to obtain a false identity card from EDEL. Before ZELLER left SCHÄFER's flat, Prisoner told him that if he needed further help, he should meet Prisoner on 2 Sep at the main rly stn in BREMEN. Prisoner left HAMBURG for KLÜVENHAGEN at midday in order to give JACOBS the false SS document. JACOBS was, however, not there and Prisoner therefore went to BREMEN.

1 Sep 46

In BREMEN, Prisoner traced SIEGEL, a former comrade of BRÖKER. BRÖKER had advised Prisoner to visit SIEGEL in BREMEN, as he considered him a likely source for D2 forms. BRÖKER told Prisoner to get in touch with POLZFUSS, who knew SIEGEL's address. Prisoner called on POLZFUSS and was given SIEGEL's address. He then called on SIEGEL. SIEGEL denied that he was in a position to supply D2 forms or that he knew of anyone who could supply them. Prisoner then told SIEGEL about ZELLER, and SIEGEL said he wished to meet ZELLER if possible. As ZELLER was coming to BREMEN on the following day, Prisoner arranged to meet SIEGEL at the rly stn.

2 Sep 46

Prisoner called at the offices of JACOBS KAFFEE, and arranged to meet JACOBS at the rly stn. Prisoner went to the stn in the afternoon and met SIEGEL. ZELLER arrived from HAMBURG and told them that Frau WOLTER had advised him to go to Frau WOLTER at SP... ZELLER then asked Prisoner if he could obtain a D2 form for him. Prisoner replied that he could not. Meanwhile JACOBS had arrived, and Prisoner left SIEGEL and ZELLER. Prisoner travelled with JACOBS to KLÜVENHAGEN and showed him the false SS document. It was, however, not correct, and Prisoner promised to alter it. JACOBS then informed Prisoner that he could start work mid Sep with JACOBS KAFFEE in STEINBERG.

4 Sep 46

Prisoner travelled to HAMBURG and visited SCHÄFER. He told her that he would be starting work at STEYERBERG mid Sep and that until then he would be staying with his family at BURG. This was the last time he saw SCHÄFER.

5 Sep 46

Prisoner went to LÜBECK and called on WEBER. He returned the false SS document and asked WEBER to rewrite it. WEBER promised to have the document ready on Prisoner's return from BURG. Prisoner then called on BRÖKER, who suggested that Prisoner should hold a meeting at LÜBECK of all former SS members. Prisoner states that he was astounded by this suggestion, and asked BRÖKER how he came to make it. BRÖKER replied that he had heard from a friend that Prisoner intended taking a flat in LÜBECK and running it as a meeting place for former members of the W/SS. Prisoner emphatically denied any such intention.

6 Sep 46

Prisoner called on OLMEN. OLMEN was about to leave for HAMBURG, where he hoped to obtain a job in the building trade. He asked Prisoner whether he could get him a D2 form, and Prisoner replied that he could not. Prisoner then accompanied OLMEN to the stn, and arranged to meet him again in the afternoon on his return from HAMBURG. Prisoner then met BRÖKER, who told him that ZELLER had returned to LÜBECK, and that he had arranged to meet him that afternoon. Prisoner therefore decided not to continue his journey to BURG that day, but went with BRÖKER and met ZELLER. ZELLER informed them that he had been ordered to report to the PSO, LÜBECK, on 7 Sep. Prisoner then went to the rly stn and met OLMEN, who had returned from HAMBURG. OLMEN told Prisoner that he had found a job with a building firm in HAMBURG, and that he was to start work on 9 Sep. He also told Prisoner that he intended calling on Frau WOLTER to obtain identity papers from HOEL for himself and a friend.

7 - 15 Sep 46

Prisoner stayed with his family at BURG.

16 Sep 46

Prisoner returned to LÜBECK and met BRÖKER, who told him that ZELLER had been arrested. Prisoner called on WEBER at the police stn, and collected the amended SS document for JACOES. Prisoner then called on OLMEN, who told him that he had been to ALTONA and had obtained an identity card from H.L. for his friend, which, however, had lost its validity and was therefore useless.

17 Sep 46

Prisoner left LÜBECK for HAMBURG and called at SCHÄFER's flat, but was told that SCHÄFER had gone to her parents. Prisoner then took a train to STEYERBERG.

20 Sep 46

Prisoner was arrested at STEYERBERG.

31 Dec 46

Prisoner arrived DIC.
